Craft & Context: In Flux

In flux is an attempt to create space for the artists involved to contemplate and question their own work. This group of nine artists were brought together to challenge and reflect on their own ideas on contemporary practice and to consider and re-evaluate their own methods and creative processes. They have used this time to step out of their own comfort zone to experiment and rethink how they approach and present their practice.

Artists: Liz Nilsson, Mary B. White, Aoife Ludlow, Suzannah Vaughan, Brigitta Varadi, Richard Quin, Peter Fulop, Lesley Kelly and Suzanne Rogers
